

To CritVA:

I'm sorry for not being a helpful friend. I'm sorry I lied to you and others about my age back then. There's so many things I want to apologize to you for, but I don't know how else to say them.

You brought me into this community and got me to meet so many creators and make new friends with said creators. Then I went and misuse some of that power. It caused more pain to others than it ever did to myself. I left you and unfriended you because of your own drama. It was enough for me to leave, and too stressful to deal with. I should have said something to you first, but I don't know how else to respond to your stuff.

I do hope you have better luck as time goes on.

To the Fuckery Trio (Natalie, Aries, and Rouge):

Natalie. I still have to say sorry. It was hurtful for you to watch the fireworks go off with it potentially never ending. I believe I have still hurted you a few times, and want to say that I am sorry for all of that. You are still a great friend, and I hope you are doing a lot better.

Aries. You are still unhinged as fuck. Lol.

But seriously, you being a wacko, full of insane energy, and always fun being around? That's a great friend, for a friend group. I know that you have grown a dislike of me now, but I believe you are still a great friend. I'm sorry to leave you and the others behind. I had no other choice. I hope you, Rouge, and Natalie have fun with your chaotic adventures.

Rouge. You are the calmer one of the bunch, but still crazy. I liked talking with you and the rest of the trio. I am glad you are having a great time with your girlfriend, and not stopping anytime soon. I am sorry to leave you behind as well. It might be depressing to have you dislike me now, but I still hope for the best in your future.

To Kenny & Tia:

You guys are right. I am a loose screw. I have caused more danger around you guys, and some of the said people in the community. And our drama didn't help that at all. From enemies, to mutuals, and currently hatred, I still feel at fault for some of our personal interactions. I was too irresponsible, and I see more of what happens if it keeps going on that route.

I shouldn't have messed with any of you. I shouldn't have been bad or angry with you both. I hope you two are having the best life together. Stay safe.

To RaeBae:

From meeting you for the first time, to being in a relationship with you, to the very bitter end, I don't know what else to feel. I still think I love you, but I also don't think it's still in the cards for us anymore. You are a great person to be around, and very comfortable to talk to. You are awesome, and I wish you the best.

I have heard of your situation as well. You had a lot going on, and I don't really have a lot to say about what happened. All I can say is I hope you get better. I still care for you deeply, but I shouldn't keep that anymore. It's more than likely too late.

To MagikuMaggi:

I should have stopped all the weird stuff we did when I was around a few years ago. I should have been honest with my age and not be a liar. But it still happens. I can't go back.

The stuff back then that has happened? I wish I could've fixed them. It's too late now. But I still hope for you to have a better time with your life. I don't know what else to say.

To Valie/SpringXy:

I am happy to know that you wanted to stay around me, even with all that was released and revealed. But I think you made a better choice to stay around the others, and not keep me around. You are a great friend that looks at all the rights and wrongs. Even believing that anyone can change.

I am sorry for any pain I caused you and your buddies. It's saddening to know that we can't be around, but you have more fun with them now, and it makes me happier to think that way then think you hate me.

Fly with your demon wings, mi amigo.

To Avery:

You were the reason why I got into the EXE community more, and got me into Vs. Sonic.exe 3.0 at the time it wasn't canceled. I still thank you for that. Even when you had your own situations, I still thank you for getting me into some of the stuff I wanted to do.

I do not know what you are doing now, but I hope Illegal Instructions and EXEmerge is going great. Thank you for the great times we made.

To Jack Gore:

I was happy to be the official VA of Scorched at the time. That was an achievement I thought I would never get in my life. I still hold that personally with all in my heart.

But, I still have hurt you with my first situation a lot. There's a lot I may have hurt you with, like the Faker/EXE VA stuff for example. I'm sorry for making you very disappointed. I am sorry for everything I did to you. Thank you for the opportunity.

To Jasper/Kenji:

You really are a loving son of a bitch. You care for so many people and always see the good in many. But that had also led you to a downfall of your own. But from the times we had. I can't say that they weren't all bad. We had a lot of great ones.

I still wish to get in contact with you, but I do not know how you feel now, but whatever you wish for, I wish you the best in your times. Despite what everyone says to you, protect yourself and others you care about. Enjoy life. You'll never know what will happen next.

To Teh Creator:

My voice acting sister. I still deeply care about you. I did play a few games with you and got to talk to you in said games. I am happy your friends are moving on from it all. I still wonder about you and still hope that you're feeling better.

I can't imagine how depressed you were when everything went down. Thinking about it makes me sick out of sadness and fear. It hurts badly to still know that you are still hurt.

To the EXEmerge Dev Team:

Thanks for the opportunity to have me become Faker at the time. I did enjoy what I voiced, and had fun with them. I am still honored, yet saddened at the same time.

I believe that Jackassary does a better job at being faker than what I can ever do. I am sorry this all happened, and I am sorry for making you all disappointed. I hope the mod project goes well.

To the McMadness Dev Team (InukoExo):

Hey Inuko and the dev team. You have all been amazing people and worked hard together. You are people that can deliver a great FNF mod, and work as hard as you can. That is what's so special to this mod team. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to voice Boyfriend and Nolan.

I'm sorry for disappointing you all. I hope you can find a better VA for BF and Nolan. Thank you.

To Akyru & Assassin:

Hey there. From what I heard, you two hate me a lot now. I get it and I am sorry. Everything is a mess, including myself. I am sorry to have hurt you two.

I hope you two had a great time with me. I am happy to be around you two for over 5 years. That's the longest I ever had friends. Too bad our streak ends because of what happened. You two take care. I hope you two can get married soon. Y'all are amazing and talented.

To OnyxGalaria:

Since you made the design of Kaida, it was best to give him to you. You made one of the best redesigns of all of my characters, and I am glad you are taking care of him now. I do know that you no longer want to be in contact after everything as well. But I know that I genuinely still care for you. You did a great job. I can't ask for anything better.

Take care of Kaida and yourself. You are talented, and deserve it.

To Snart Studios:

You are a great person. You giving me the role as Mr. Virtual was one of the most fun I had with a character. I enjoyed him a lot, but due to what happened back then, I still am sorry for everything. Sorry to your girlfriend as well. I hope KINGFOX is doing better at voicing this even Virtual Boy Mario than me. He deserved it more.

I hope The Virtual Files still goes well. It will be a killer series to look at for a lot of people.

To Dee/Sarah:

I'm sorry. I'm sorry for interacting with you. I'm sorry for hurting you. I'm sorry for unconsciously forcing things on you. I'm sorry for everything that happened. I can't forgive myself, knowing you were one of the people affected the most. I shouldn't have gotten into any kind of relationship with you. I should have just ignored you. But I am a dumbass.

I am sorry. A thousand times sorry. All I ask is to take care of yourself and Blu. You all deserve a happy life. I am not around to plague you all anymore.

To Blu:

Same to you. I am terribly sorry. I did know you were in a relationship. I still did it knowing it. I am glad you DMed me and called me out. I deserve that. I hurted you. Not thinking about it at all. I can't fix that. All I can say is I am sorry. Just keep her happy. Keep yourself happy. Do everything you can to just make yourselves feel better.

I hope you are both feeling better.

To PenUmbra:

Thank you for being reasonable and calling me out. I am still happy to know that you do care for me, and want to get better, but I still should have listened to you before everything went down. I should have been more mature and put my foot down on the things that should stop. You helped me and the others a lot. Even if it was harsh. Please keep helping more in the future.

To Robo:

I honestly don't know everything I should say to you. Though I am sorry for how I interacted with you. I'm sorry for getting mad at you and saying shit about you. While I do not want to talk about your stuff, It's your business and I hope you feel better now after all you have gone through. I hope that your game development is going along well.

To GameReel:

I still am glad you defended me at that time of doubt. You helped me a lot. And Large Lenny at the time too. But now that this is out, I can't say anything but sorry that you are disappointed. I am also sorry for you having to deal with my stress and bullshit. It didn't help you that much, but having my back was one of the greatest things a person could ask for.

I hope you're doing better, but I still am sorry for having this shit happen and you being the "leader" of all of it. I am sorry for hurting you as well.

To some of the ALTLAS Crew (Marie and Nick):

Marie, Nick, and other ALTLAS crews I might be missing from here.

Thank you for having me as a guest. With Nat around, it was full of fun and creative ideas. This little kick-ass indie studio was amazing to be a part of. You all rocked.

I am sorry to disappoint this group, as seen with many others. I hope you all stay amazing and keep creating great stuff.

To Alexander/Caine:

You were a great friend that was fighting his own problems as well. I hope you are doing way better now than last year. And now that this situation came to light, it caused you to get hurt as well. It saddens me to see this from you too.

I am sorry for giving you another pain to deal with. It's something you shouldn't have ever been given. I hope you feel better and remember the good times of our friendship.

To Nominal Dingus:

I'm sorry to have left you as well. I don't know how exactly you feel now, but during my first situation, you were a great friend I was introduced to. Talented as well. Like the Fuckery Trio, you were crazy funny as well. A humor I enjoy with many friends.

I don't know how hurt you are or how you feel, but I am still sorry and I hope you are doing well.

To the EXE Misfits Server:

I am very VERY sorry to the people on this server. This also involves Dee, Blu, and Pen as they are in the server as well. I feel I have been a bad co-owner and icon to you all in there. I was immature and wasn't even that great of a guy.

I know you all turned on me now, and I deserve that. You all deserve better, and I hope someone has already delivered.

To Hollow:

Before Valie left, I heard how angry you were with me. I am also sorry for all of this as well. You were a great friend to Valie and deeply cared about others. And a great judge, might I add?

I hope Valie is being taken care of now. Same with you Hollow. Stay positive.

To Frostbite:

I don't know exactly how you feel, but you always had a chill mood. You always saw the good and chill side of everyone. You had that within you. You are literally weed inside of a man.

I am sorry for having to leave you on a sour note. You deserve a better friend than me. Take care and stay frosty, okay?

To DemonThingy:

I felt I may have hurt you as well. I am sorry for all of that. I should have been paying attention to you more as a friend. You really had talent on your side. That's amazing coming from you.

I hope you're doing well. It's a tough place out there, and I don't want you to get hurt. Keep making music and voicing some cool shit. Love ya man.

To Empry.Lauv:

You made so much art of my character. Too many to count to be honest. That is amazing seeing that. Even including the requests I asked you to do, if you could. Also calling you my internet sister made me feel really happy.

Now after everything, all of the things you did, and the sibling relationship we had. Just feel like dust particles flowing in the wind. It hurts me a lot, and I think the same can be said to you. I am sorry for everything. You were hurt a lot as well. I hope I can make it up to you as well in the future.

Please keep doing art and keep being talented. Paalam.

To other anonymous victims, friends, workers, and people whom I can't remember or not mentioned for their privacy:

I am sorry for hurting any of you. I am sorry to not deliver on anything worthy of your time. I am sorry for everything I had done in general. You are all great people I have met and all did well for me and others.

But now knowing I have hurt all of you, I will never forgive myself for a while. But I will make sure nothing like that happens again. And I'll make sure by doing good deeds. Whether you believe it or not, I will do what's right. You all deserve to rest yourselves. You all deserve it.

I hope for the best of luck.
